

Public Business Centres in Brussels

The Brussels-Capital Region Development Company (La Société de Développement pour la Région de Bruxelles Capitale - SDRB) is a public institution devoted to supporting and accompanying economic development and employment in the Region. Its activities focus mainly on settling in infrastructures for enterprises in particular, business centres.

These business centers provide companies under creation with assistance, accommodation and a whole range of services at moderate cost, going from telephone desk to management support or advice in filing for grants and subsidies.
